Character Education Foundation Shines at 19th Karachi International Book Fair

Character Education Foundation proudly participated in the 19th Karachi International Book Fair held at Expo Centre Karachi from December 12-16, 2024. CEF's stall attracted thousands of visitors, including educators, parents, and students, who showed great interest in our books and programs. Visitors appreciated our efforts in character-building and fostering moral values in the young generation. The positive feedback and overwhelming support encourage us to continue our mission of transforming lives through character-building education. The event provided an excellent opportunity to showcase our books, other resources, and initiatives, reaffirming our dedication to creating a brighter future for our young generation. We sincerely thank all visitors for their support and appreciation!

Honoring Nisar Sabir (Late) with the Heartfelt Tribute

CEF organized Nisar Sabir Memorial Sports Tournament, a one-day event in Islamabad, hosted by the HR department to promote physical and mental well-being. The tournament featured cricket, badminton, and table tennis competitions, bringing together staff from various departments in a spirit of teamwork. Winning teams were celebrated, emphasizing HR's commitment to a balanced lifestyle and workplace productivity.

Recognizing the Everlasting Legacy of Nisar Sabir

On the anniversary of late Nisar Sabir, a deeply emotional program was held to honor his remarkable contributions. In a touching moment, Mahmood Ahmed, Chairman, CEF, presented a heartfelt award to his mother, recognizing her son's unwavering dedication and the profound impact he left on all. His memory serves as a beacon of strength, motivating others to strive for greatness and live with purpose.

Winter Camp for Children at Character Education Institutes Karachi

In December 2024, a Winter Camp was organized for children under the Character Education Institutes Karachi during the winter holidays. The five-day camp saw active participation from children, supported by their parents throughout the event. The camp was carefully designed to build strong character in the children, incorporating mental and physical activities. The children engaged enthusiastically in these activities, and the parents highly appreciated the positive impact on their children. The camp proved to be a great success, fostering character-building in our young generation.

AJ&K's Successful Training Programs

CEF Azad Jammu & Kashmir conducted a 26-day Fahm-ul-Quran residential course, with 181 teachers participating across eight districts. Additionally, a six-day Nazirah course was held in Neelum and Bhimbar valleys, engaging 58 teachers.

At the Union Council level, 160 groups participated in competitions, with thousands of students involved enthusiastically.

CEF also organized conventions for private school principals, attracting 1,215 attendees.
