Youth Impact Organizes Pre-ToT Boot Camp for Youth Leadership Program Trainers

Youth Impact successfully organized a comprehensive Pre-ToT (Pre-Training of Trainers) Boot Camp as part of its commitment to youth development. The camp was designed to strengthen the capacity of CEF's trainers, enabling them to deliver more impactful, experience-based learning sessions and foster the development of essential life skills among youth. This important training initiative represents a significant step toward preparing trainers to inspire, guide, and nurture our young generation of leaders with greater confidence and competence.

Inside Stories Include:

- Inspiring Weekend Kids Camp Begins In Karachi at Character Education Institute, Gulshan-e-Maymar
- CEF Holds Nazirah & Fahm-ul-Quran Competitions across AJ&K Districts
- Empowering Educators to Achieve Excellence in Implementing Values-Driven Education
- Inspiring Minds: Mental Hygiene Session for Purposeful Social Impact

Alhamdulillah! A powerful new step towards building strong character in our young generation has begun at the Character Education Institute (CEI), Campus 1, Gulshan-e-Maymar, Karachi. The camp focuses on building strong character. It is based on CEF's "Hasana Tarbiyah" curriculum. A number of students have joined in the first phase. Through fun and meaningful activities, the camp helps children grow into responsible citizens.

Empowering Educators to Achieve Excellence in Implementing Values-Driven Education

Under CEF's Character Building Program, a dynamic Training of Trainers (ToT) session was conducted at Dar-e-Arqam Schools Bahria Town and other Education Systems to mark the beginning of the new academic year. The training focused on implementing CEF's Character-Building Curriculum across all branches in Islamabad and Rawalpindi. The goal was to equip educators with tools to inspire students and drive value-driven education. The session highlighted the importance of moral excellence and set the tone for a character-focused academic journey.

CEF Holds Nazirah & Fahm-ul-Quran Competitions across AJ&K Districts

Extensive Nazirah and Fahm-ul-Quran Competitions were held by CEF across AJK districts, showcasing the CEF's dedication to Quranic education under its Quran & Sunnah Program. Government Girls Model School, Kotli, won first place in Nazirah Quran, while Faran Model School, Nakyal, led the Fahm-ul-Quran category. Both the winners will now represent at the Azad Kashmir level. The event saw enthusiastic participation, strengthening the connection with the Quran.

Inspiring Minds: Mental Hygiene Session for Purposeful Social Impact

CEF organized a powerful session on Mental Hygiene and Thoughtful Intelligence at its Head Office. The session was delivered by Dr. Musarrat Jabeen, a scholar with a Post-doctoral in thoughtful intelligence. It focused on developing mental clarity, emotional resilience, and purposeful thinking at the workplace.
