Character Education Foundation Organizes State-Level Nazirah and Fahm-ul-Quran Competitions in Azad Jammu & Kashmir

Character Education Foundation (CEF) proudly organized the Nazirah & Fahm-ul-Quran State-Level Competition in Azad Jammu & Kashmir, bringing together over 150 attendees and 20 brilliant participants from across the region. This remarkable event celebrated the Quran not just as a book to be recited—but as a guide to be understood, lived, and cherished. The energy, excellence, and enthusiasm of the students illuminated the stage and inspired every heart present. Through heartfelt recitations, profound reflections, and a deep spiritual connection, the competition embodied CEF's unwavering mission—to nurture a generation with an impeccable character grounded in the teachings of the Quran.

Spark of Change: Teachers Across Sindh Trained to Build Character of Our Young Generation to Inspire and Transform for a Brighter Future

Under Character Building Program, teacher training sessions were held across six cities in Sindh, including Sukkur, Larkana, Hyderabad, Tando Allahyar, Nawabshah, and Jamshoro. Hundreds of teachers from both public and private schools participated. The training focused on character building, curriculum understanding, and effective teaching strategies. Teachers engaged in group activities, discussions, and practical lesson planning. Lead trainer Mr. Syed Ajaz Bukhari stated that the goal was to help teachers shape responsible and ethical students. Participants found the sessions inspiring and impactful. One teacher shared, "It's about shaping lives, not just delivering lessons." Organizers plan to continue support through follow-ups and refresher courses.
